MG-LITERARY NOTICE.—GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.—The January number of this popular periodical superbly embellished, has been upon our table several days. It is certainly one of the richest numbers the enterprising publisher has ever issued, and is just the thing for a New Year's gift. This work ranks among magazines, as the Herald does among newspapers, as the best, and the open-handed enterprize of its proprietor proves that it long will be so. The enormous circulation of this work has been secured by a generous disregard of the publisher of expense in the literary and pictorial departments, so that he has enlisted on his side the good will of artists and writers, as well as of readers.

"The Hawking Party," and the little gem entitled "Harry"—a portrait we presume—are two of the finest engravings, that have ever been given in a magazine.

will be ready at the New World Office, 30 Ann street, and Wadleigh's, 459 Broadway. Price $2.50, handsomely bound. MEXICO AS IT WAS AND AS IT IS!—By Brantz Mayer, late Secretary of Legation to that country. Embellished with 100 splendid engravings, executed for this work, at a cost of over twelve hundred dollars. This will be the cheapest and most valuable book of the season, with over one hundred and fifty engravings, executed in the highest style of the art—embracing views of the ruined cities, pyramids, curiosities, &c.; and also, illustrations of the people, their manners and customs, &c. &c. &c. It will be the most highly embellished work that has ever been published in this country, and full of incident, description, and valuable information, which can no where else be found.

tion, and valuable information, which can no where else be found.

Mr. Mayer's work will give a complete account of the present social and political condition of Mexico; a view of its ancient civilization; a description of antiquities in the museum of Mexico, and of the ancient remains, strewn from California to Odjaca, which will be copiously illustrated. It will also furnish a record of the author's journeys to Texcoco, and through the Tierra Caliente; a full account of the agriculture, manufactures, commerce, resources, mines, coinage, and statistics of Mexico; and, added to this, there will be a complete view of the past and present history of the country; and it will be more replete with all interesting information concerning Mexico, than any work which has appeared since the days of Humboldt. So great has been the labor of preparing this work, that we have been able to get ready but one edition, of only 1000 copies, for the holidays—most of which are already ordered. Those wishing to secure copies should be speedy with their orders.

103- THE BOUNDARY LINE BETWEEN LIFE and Death is easily overpassed; but those who steer their course by those great landmarks of health, Peters' Vegetable Pills and Medicated Lozenges, need have no more dread of encroachments of disease, than the citizens of Maine had of the incursions of the New Brunswickers. This is the season of all others when the foundation of deadly complaints are laid. It is easier to destroy disease in the bud, than when it has, like the poisonous shadow of the Upas tree, infected the whole system of its yietim. Cough, consumption, and death, are three steps in the paths of destiny, which follow each other with marvellous speed. You can arrest the first and prevent the last two, by the use of Peters' Cough Lozenges. Habitual costiveness leads to hundreds of fatal diseases. Peters' Vegetable Pills cure it immediately; and by regulating and invigorating the digestive system, remove the causes of disease from the great organs of life. The Cathartic Lozenges are similar in their operations, and the Worm Lozenges destroy and expel worms with electric rapidity. The public should be on their guard, and see that Dr. Peters' signature is on each box. All others are spurious mintations, and will do more harm than good. Principal office 125 Fulton street.

The finances of Pennsylvania have been discussed lately by the journals of that State quite extensively. The State reasurer's annual report gives the receipts and expenditures of the government for the past, in detail, and shows a balance in the Treasury November 30th, of $459,471.— The receipts from the public works belonging to the State have exceeded those for 1842, notwithstanding many un-favorable circumstances retarded the operations for the season. The condition of the finances of Pennsylvania is a subject of vital importance to hundreds whose last dollar has been squandered in public improvements by this sich and populous State. This new and popular little work, which has already received a wide circulation in Boston, exhibits the benefit of steam in a very clear manner. In the short space of time above named, the author has twice crossed the Atlantic, visited nearly all the great places of interest in Failroads, and has now produced a lively, just, and valuable work. The position of Pennsylvania, her immense wealth and unbounded resources, the power to be honest, without the disposition, the partiality shown her domestic creditors, and the utter disregard exhibited for the starving widows and orphans abroad, who have their all locked up in the public improvements of the state, whose citizens are daily receiving the benefit of, and the present prospect that her legislature will do nothing towards the payment of the interest on her immense public debt, places Penn sylvania in a more unfavorable, dishonest light than any ether state in the Union. Dear Sin:

Your favor of the 28th of October, with a gross of the Tuberose Shaving Cream, is at hand. I have introduced it to the notice of several gentlemen of judgment and experience in cosmetics, and they unanimously pronounced it decidedly preferable to anything in the way of shaving, for softening the beard, that has yet been introduced in the Island. Its neat and tasteful appearance is not the only recommendation—it is not likely to irritate the skin, or dry up, as is the case with sonps generally. I have no hesitation in ordering twelve gross, and wish the exclusive agency of it for Cuba.

The above is only one of many testimonials which are brought out solely on the merits of the article alone. A fair trial will convince the most incredulous of its superiority over any similar article before the public.

LADIES COMPANION

LADIES OF THE AND LAND AND LITERARY EXPOSITOR,

A NATIONAL STANDARD MAGAZINE, Published by William W. Showden.

EDITORS:

MRS. LYDIA R. SINGURNEY,

MRS. EMMA C. EMBURY,

WILLIAM W. SNOWDEN.

At the urgent solicitation of thous was of subscribers and readers the ladies Companion will in future be printed upon a LARGER TYPE.

The general complaint has been, that the size of the type upon which the work has been printed since its commencement was too small. To obviate such complaints, a splendid fount of new Bourgoise Type, (which is a size larger than that fermerly used) has been purchased from the foundry of George Bruce & Co., of this city—Bon which the Ladies' Lompanion and Literary Expositor will hereafter be printed—commencing with the New Volume.

WIG

SO closely resembles the real head of hair that sceptics and connouscurs have pronounced it the most perfect and extraordinary invention of the day. The great advantage of this novel and unique wig is its being made without sewing or weaving, which causes its appearances so closely to resemble the natural hair, both in lightness and natural appearance, as to defy detection, its texture being so beautiful, so pronous and so free, that in all cases of perspiration evaporation is unimpeded, and the great evils of other wigs entirely avoided. The acceptic and connolsseur are alike invited to inspect this novel and beautiful Wig, and the peculiar method of fitting the head, at the manufacturer's A C. Barry, 146 Broadway, corner of Liberty street, no staries. VERY OLD WINES—The subscriper offers for sale at 45 Plus atreet, corner of William, the following Wines, Braudies, &c.
